

SUMMER READERS: MAKE A CLEAN SWEEP

ANNOUNCING.....

“READ DOWN YOUR FINES”

Are you carrying fines on your library account that you can't pay off?
Have you been avoiding the library because you can't use your library card?

WE'VE BEEN MISSING YOU & WE WANT YOU BACK!

This summer you can actually read in the library and earn Library Bucks that may be used to pay off your outstanding overdues charges.

It's as easy as 1.....2.....3.....

- (1) You must be between the ages of 10 & 17;
 - (2) You must log in with the Children's Librarian and do your reading within the library building;
 - (3) $\frac{1}{2}$ hour of supervised reading = 1 Library Buck;
- earn your Library Bucks, turn them in at the front desk, and receive credit on your account.

Library Bucks may not be applied to “Lost Book” charges.

Nothing could be finer than having your library card cleared for next year's studies!

DON'T DELAY: This offer runs June 15 - August 26, 2017.
